

50 THINGS TO DO AT GRASS RIVER

1. Listen to the babbling of Finch Creek
2. Walk the Rail Trail
3. Volunteer at one of our Stewardship Days
4. Attend a spring birding program
5. Find a hemlock tree
6. Touch the pelts of animals at the Grass River Center
7. Walk the new section of boardwalk
8. Lift a log to see if you can find a salamander
9. Find and identify a purple flower
10. Say "hi" to Ruby, GRNA's resident snake, at the center
11. Dip a net into Finch Creek to see what you can find
12. Hike the Sedge Meadow Trail
13. Identify three different trees
14. Attend an art program at the center
15. Kayak Grass River
16. Snowshoe on Chippewa Trail
17. Touch a braille sign on the Perception Pathway
18. Identify three different wetland wildflowers
19. See the tamarack trees change color in the fall
20. Become a butterfly monitor
21. Hike the Algonquin Trail
22. Look for mushrooms
23. Listen for spring peepers in the spring
24. Use the Field Guide to Northwest MI to identify three natural features
25. Match scat to the animal at the center (don't worry, it's not real!)
26. Volunteer to be a stream monitor
27. Sit on the dock at Grass River
28. Read our new interpretive panels at the center
29. Hike Chippewa Trail
30. Attend a maple tapping program at the center in the spring
31. Cross country ski the Rail Trail
32. Play a game of outdoor bingo (you can find it in the center)

33. Take the Trails Challenge
34. Feel the bark of a tree
35. Find and identify a white flower
36. Feel the temperature of Finch Creek
37. Feel the temperature of Grass River and compare it to Finch Creek
38. Close your eyes and use the guiding rope on the Perception Pathway
39. Match skulls to their animals at the center
40. Find a northern cedar tree
41. Walk around the native gardens at the center
42. Hike the Woodland Trail
43. Attend a Wildflower Walk during the summer
44. Go birdwatching
45. Look at snake skin under a microscope at the center
46. Hike the Nipissing Trail
47. Sit on a bench and listen for wildlife
48. Find three different shaped leaves
49. Hike the Fern Trail
50. Tell a naturalist at the center your favorite thing at Grass River